Heritage

Brooks Kirchheimer, Park City restaurateur, has had the restaurant bug ever since Santa answered his wish as a youngster of a cash register for his pretend diner, with his sisters as guests. Nothing like siblings to teach the art of customer service!

Fast forward, and after a Restaurant Management degree at the University of Denver and a decade managing at the renowned Montage in Beverly Hills and Deer Valley, Zoom in Park City, and Merriman's in Maui, Brooks was eager to open his own restaurant.

Partnering with his parents, in December 2018 Brooks opened Hearth and Hill in Park City. The upscale-casual, family friendly eatery instantly became a popular local gathering spot and perennial award winner.

The key to this success is a commitment to "Inspire our associates, thrill our guests, and enrich our community." As Brooks said, "The pandemic underscored the desire of people to enjoy the company of friends and family, and the vitality that such gatherings inject into the community. If a meal at one of our places can serve that purpose, that's very gratifying."

After three-plus years, expansion beckoned, with new concepts and locations that complement the original: Hill's Kitchen Café & Catering in Park City, and Urban Hill, a fine-dining restaurant in the burgeoning Post District of Salt Lake City. The next concept will be Hearth and Hill Sugarhouse, expected 2025. Just like the first Hearth and Hill, they feature inviting environments and dream teams of restaurant talent.
