Sommelier's Selection

Yacoubian-Hobbs White Wine voskehat
Aghavnadzor, Vayots Dzor, Armenia

22/105

A crisp Armenian white wine crafted in partnership with renowned winemaker Paul Hobbs. Grown at over 4,000 feet in elevation in volcanic soils, this grape is a cornerstone of wine production in Armenia. It offers notes of honeysuckle, white melon and crisp green apple tied together with refined minerality. Medium body and vibrant acidity that will pair beautifully with oysters, the smoked beet salad or the Iberian pork chop.

Featured Cocktail

Day Bloom playful, bittersweet, sun-kissed

She has also led beverage programs at acclaimed properties in her hometown of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

She earned her sommelier certification in Pennsylvania and holds a Level 2 certification from the Court of Master Sommeliers. Dedicated to continual growth, Elizabeth is currently pursuing her Level 3 certification.

Elizabeth's passion extends beyond wine, she is committed to creating exceptional guest experiences through thoughtful service, education, and storytelling. She loves mentoring and inspiring the team to discover the perfect pairing for every guest while sharing the unique journey behind each bottle. Her greatest reward is creating memorable moments at the table that guests will remember long after the last glass is poured.

Our Lead Bartender, Jordon Strang, whose combined expertise shapes a thoughtful, dynamic drinking experience. Together, the team approaches the program with intention, ensuring each element—from cocktails to wine—feels cohesive, well-balanced, and aligned with the culinary vision of Urban Hill. With a focus on quality ingredients, seasonality, and attention to detail, the beverage offerings are designed to enhance each guest's experience from the first sip to the last.

Jordon leads the cocktail program with creativity and technical depth, drawing on his experience developing standout bar programs throughout the city.
