

urban HILL

At Urban Hill, our beverage program is intentional, curious, and rooted in place. We seek out small producers who farm with purpose and make wines and spirits that tell a story of where they come from and who made them. We curate libations with precision ensuring all guests have something exceptional in their glass. Our non-alcoholic offerings are crafted with the same curiosity, creativity, and intention as the rest of our beverage program.

We believe great hospitality is about discovery. Our team continually invests in learning so we can guide you toward the perfect pairing, introduce you to something unexpected, or help you find a new favorite. Above all, we want what's in your glass to become part of an experience worth remembering.

Come Curious. We'll meet you in the glass.

Sommelier's Selections

N.A.G. 'Betsek' 2019 hárslevelű 12/60
Matra, Hungary

"I serve those for whom it is made. I like it when beautiful, hidden emotions burst out with my wines, moods appear and joy sparkles in the eyes."
- Attila Gabor Nemeth, wine maker

An aromatic dry white wine with bright acid, hints of mushroom, baking spices and dried apricot.

Monastero Trappiste di Vitorchiano 'Benedic' ciliegiolo, sangiovese 22/105
Lazio, Italy

This beautiful wine is brought to you by the Sisters of the Cistercian order in Lazio, Italy. This small but mighty group of nuns started producing wine in the 1990's and in the early 2000's gained the help of wine maker Paolo Bea. This wine is a truly holistic experience. Indigenous yeasts, no fining or filtering with organic grapes. This light low ABV red wine is intended to have a chill and be very easy to drink. With notes of raspberry, strawberry and cranberry this wine rounds out with hints of tea and tobacco with a juicy finish.
